

My husband is a trucker and I bought XM radio for him. The weather and traffic updates are very important to him. I paid for my satellite service and am very satisfied with it and see no reason why someone should take away my service.